DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sakurai et al.

The patent by Sakurai et al. (4,790,287) shows an oil separator for an internal combustion engine with a basket (57) sealingly mounted to a valve cover (53) of an engine. The basket contains at least one vent for allowing blow by gas and oil particles to pass there-through. A breather lid (5) is sealingly mounted to the basket. A filter media (62) is disposed between the basket and the breather lid for separating oil particles from the blow-by gas.

The basket forms a seal with the valve cover and with the breather lid. The breather lid includes an outlet port (68) for allowing the blow-by gas to exit the oil separator.
